

I can infer how a character is feeling
How does Hassan feel during his first two days at school?

Best Feeling

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|---|------------------------------------|------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| At the beginning of the story when he arrives at his new school | At lunch time | When he painted his picture | When Miss Kelly looked at the picture | At home time on his first day | When he met Fela and could talk to her in his language | Telling Fela and Miss Kelly about his picture and journey | When he went out to play with Jake | Painting a new picture | Showing his picture to his family | Going home on the second day |
|---|---------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|---|------------------------------------|------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|