

I can infer how a character is feeling
 How does Hassan feel during his first two days at school?

Best Feeling

At the beginning of the story when he arrives at his new school	At lunch time	When he painted his picture	When Miss Kelly looked at the picture	At home time on his first day	When he met Fela and could talk to her in his language	Telling Fela and Miss Kelly about his picture and journey	When he went out to play with Jake	Painting a new picture	Showing his picture to his family	Going home on the second day
---	---------------	-----------------------------	---------------------------------------	-------------------------------	--	---	------------------------------------	------------------------	-----------------------------------	------------------------------