What time could it be?

Q2

This clock has lost its minute hand.
What time could it be?

English - The Lost Happy Endings

We are now going to write our stories with an unhappy ending. This will also be Monday's task so that you have longer to produce a really good piece of writing.

I have uploaded some targets for success, look at the plan you wrote and edit it to make sure you have included all of the targets.

After you have edited your work use this plan to write a story with an unhappy ending.

Foundations Subject – RE – Hindu Symbols and Meanings

Look through the powerpoint about Hindu symbols and their meanings. There is a work sheet with pictures of some of these symbols. Next to each picture write in the meaning.
