Year Three answers 26/6/20

Maths

Jack wants to tell the time, but the hour hand has fallen off the clock.

There are 12 different possible times it could be during a full day.

The minute hand and the hour hand of a clock are both pointing to an even number.

It is before midday. What times could it be?

Give three possible answers.

The time could be 2 o'clock, 4 o'clock, 6 o'clock, 8 o'clock, 10 o'clock or 12 o'clock. It could also be ten past, twenty past, or half past 2, 4, 6, 8 or 10, or twenty to or ten to 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 or 12. That took a lot of working out!

I don't agree with Jack because there are 26 different possible times it could be. The time could be ten o'clock, ten to one, ten to two, ten to three, ten to four, ten to five, ten to six, ten to seven, ten to eight, ten to nine, ten to ten, ten to eleven or ten to twelve. These times happen twice a day, am and pm.

English

1. Eurydice was a nymph. Use a dictionary or look online- what is a nymph in Greek mythology?
A nymph was a spirit of nature that were imagined as beautiful women who lived in trees and rivers.
2. Why were Pluto and Persephone so amazed that a living person reached their kingdom?
Pluto and Persephone were amazed that a living person had reached their kingdom because it was the kingdom of the dead. Also, there were a lot of dangers blocking the way into Hades.
3. Why do you think Pluto agreed to release Eurydice from the Underworld on the condition that Orpheus didn't look back to see her?
I think maybe Pluto agreed to release Eurydice as long as Orpheus didn't look at her because he knew that Orpheus wouldn't be able to resist and so Eurydice wouldn't escape.
4. Thinking about everything we know about Greek myths, would you say Orpheus was a hero? Why?
Orpheus does a lot of the things that heroes in Greek myths do. He goes on a dangerous quest to find something and has to defeat monsters and solve problems on the way. This myth is different though because Orpheus is going on a journey to find a reward for himself and not for someone else. Also, even though he succeeds in reaching the end of his quest, he doesn't win. Pluto defeats him. I think he is a hero because he does have the features, but I wouldn't say he's a hero for the people.

Thank you if you've shared your mini- project with us on Facebook. I'm always impressed at the work you do! Maybe when it's safer to go for days out, you might be able to visit one of the parts of the wall you found out about and go and see it for yourself!
