

Shotton Hall Primary School

Working together to

SHINE

Successful, Happy, Inspired and Nurtured towards Excellence

Maths

A) 1,322, 824, 2,340

B) 2,978

C) 1,322 r 6, 823 r 6, 2340 r 7

D) The factory will need 938 cartons. 937 cartons will be full. The answers are different as there was a remainder of eggs that needed to be put in an addition box, but they did not fill it completely.

English

Commas and Relative Clauses

Answers

- a. My brother, who lives in Sydney, came to see me last month. non-essential
- b. It is best not to stroke a dog that you do not know. essential
- c. I like to ride bicycles that have a loud bell to ring. essential
- d. Cats, who are lazy, often sleep for most of the day. non-essential
- e. Students who concentrate in class often do better in tests. essential
- f. Emma, who had fallen asleep on the sofa, suddenly woke up. non-essential
- g. Victorian children played with dolls that had china heads. essential
- h. Dinosaurs, which are now extinct, are said to have ruled the Earth. non-essential

2. Write a sentence with an essential relative clause.

Example answer: The child who had the winning ticket would be the one to receive the prize.

3. Write a sentence with a non-essential relative clause.

Example answer: The cat, who had been sitting on the wall all afternoon, jumped down to greet his owner.

RE

Listen and then read the story of St Oswald of Bamburgh and then complete the tasks below.

Answers

Here are some things you may have written. You may have written some different facts which are different from mine. That's fine!

- 1. He defeated the cruel king Cadwalla.
- 2. His belief in Christ helped his army. It was their faith in God that made it happen.
- 3. In the place where he made a cross many people have been cured of their illnesses.
- 4. The place is called Heavenfield, or the Heavenly Field, an old name which predicted what was going to happen, because it was here that the great trophy of Heaven was raised up, the Heavenly victory won, and heavenly miracles are still made today.
- 5. He was humble, friendly, and generous to the poor and strangers.

2. Some things you may have written:

"I put all my faith and trust in God. I believe in Oswald and trust him with my life."

"I'm worried that Oswald has made a mistake and we won't be victorious."

"I think we should turn around and flee now before we all die! Our army is too small."

3. Your list might include:

Faith, hope, trust, love friendship, companionship, belief, loyalty

I think that faith is the most important quality because his follows had no idea how the battle would end and they could have died. It takes faith to do something where you do not know what the outcome might be.

Do you agree? What ideas did you have? Discuss this with your adult or sibling if you can.

