

Year Three answers 8/6/20

Maths

Today we're going to keep working on time. First, for your fluency, a recap of what you learnt last week about the days of the week. Then for your reasoning, you need to use your knowledge of leap years.

Fluency

Use a calendar to help you answer the questions.

a) How many days are in each month in a normal calendar year?

January	<input type="text" value="31"/>	May	<input type="text" value="31"/>	September	<input type="text" value="30"/>
February	<input type="text" value="28"/>	June	<input type="text" value="30"/>	October	<input type="text" value="31"/>
March	<input type="text" value="31"/>	July	<input type="text" value="31"/>	November	<input type="text" value="30"/>
April	<input type="text" value="30"/>	August	<input type="text" value="31"/>	December	<input type="text" value="31"/>

b)

There are more days in a leap year, so all of the answers to part a) will change.

Do you agree with Tommy? No

Explain your answer.

1. How is this myth different to the others we've looked at so far?

I think this myth is different because it tells us how people got something we just take for granted and I think the idea that fire comes from a piece of the sun is clever. Also, it gives an explanation as to how humans came into existence! Another way this myth is different is because there isn't a monster in this myth. A giant is usually a bad character, but in this story Prometheus is good because he makes humans and then helps them. It is the gods who are the bad characters in this story.

2. What do you think about Zeus' personality? Why do you think that?

Zeus seems to be an angry character who likes to remind everyone of how powerful he is. He sends lightning to Earth just to frighten people and make them think they've done something to anger him. I think the punishment he gives to Prometheus is too strong and very cruel but I think he did it because Prometheus gave people the power of fire and Zeus didn't want them to have any power.

3. Was Prometheus right to do what he did?

I'm really torn about this one! I can see why Prometheus wanted to help the people he had made because they were like his children, but to steal something so powerful was wrong. I think the punishment was far too severe for his crime, though.
