Rights Respecting Article of the week:

Article 2 - (non-discrimination)
The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Here are some activities you might like to try:

1. Being happy and proud about who we are as people is important. Have you read 'The Flamingo Who Didn't Want To Be Pink'? Watch the story made by children at William Tyndale School. Try to get all your family and friends to tell you the best things they like about being themselves and the best things about you.
2. Imagine that you are treated differently and not allowed to go to school, have friends and play because of the colour of your hair. ... How would this feel? What would you say and do? Discuss this with the grown ups at home.
3. Think of somewhere that you know well. It might be a library, a park or a swimming pool. Does it welcome everyone? Can all children take part there equally? Talk to your friends or family about what could make this place better for everyone
