Explain how you know.

English – Reading Comprehension

Today's task is a reading comprehension about Roald Dahl. You may remember some of the answers if you have listened to my reading of 'Boy Tales of Childhood'. But you will also need to read the short biography I have uploaded, as this has more information about his later life.

After reading the biography look at the questions I have uploaded and answer these.

Foundations Subject – Design Technology

For the last few weeks of term our DT work will be all around bread. To begin watch this video on the Warburton's website and tell me 5 facts about bread.

<https://www.warburtons.co.uk/corporate/teaching-resources/bread-making-project>

In the coming weeks we will be finding more information about different breads around the world and hopefully making our own bread!
