Today I'd like to look at how we write non-chronological reports. I've uploaded a report on Poseidon today. What I'd like you to do is read it and then identify which of these pieces of information have been included in the report already. You could tick them off or write down the numbers.

1. Poseidon was most notably the god of the sea and the protector of all waters; sailors relied upon him for safe passage
2. Zeus and Hades were his brothers
3. He was worshipped in connection with navigation
4. His name is Greek for "husband"
5. Poseidon could strike the ground with his trident to produce an earthquake. This earned him the nickname "Earth-shaker"
6. Poseidon possessed a palace, made of gems and coral, located on the ocean floor. He was at Mount Olympus more often than his palace
7. Poseidon was moody by nature: his temper was unstable, and his changes in emotions often led to violence
8. Poseidon travelled in a chariot pulled by horses
9. Poseidon was the husband of Amphitrite, a Nereid (sea nymph). They had a child: Triton, who was half-human, half-fish
10. Poseidon created the flying horse Pegasus-one of many mythological creatures.

Now look at the information left over. Which paragraph would you put each piece into? Think carefully- we need to group information together that is about the same thing.

Foundation Subject – History

Today I've included a Romans information sheet which puts together all of the information you've learned about the Romans this half term. I'd like you to use this sheet (or your memory, if you can remember!) to answer these quiz questions.

1. How many soldiers were in a legion?
2. Who was the Emperor in AD 43?
3. When did Emperor Hadrian order his wall to be built?
4. What was the name of Boudicca's tribe?
5. What did the Romans call France?

Now I'd like you to come up with 5 quiz questions of your own about the Romans. You could either ask them to someone at home, or you can put them on Facebook for me to answer! Try to make them quite tricky (but make sure you know the answers!)
